Nikki Fried, Florida's 12th Commissioner of Agriculture and Consumer Services, is a lifelong Floridian, attorney and passionate activist. She is the first woman elected to the position, the first Democrat to hold it since 2001, and currently the only Democratic statewide elected official in Florida.

Commissioner Fried plans to speak about why she originally ran for office, what she has been doing through FDACS, takeaways from the 2020 cycle, what she thinks about the path forward, and what party needs in 2022 to win.
